University of Prince Edward Island

Located on 140 acres in Charlottetown, the birthplace of Confederation, the University of Prince Edward Island (UPEI) has a rich history with roots in two founding institutions: Prince of Wales College (est. 1834) and St. Dunstan's University (est. 1855). UPEI honours this proud legacy through a growing reputation for research innovation and academic excellence.

St. Francis Xavier University

St. Francis Xavier University offers what so many of Canada's top students are seeking: a high quality education, focused principally on the undergraduate, in a vibrant residential setting. Recognized as one of the finest schools in Canada, StFX is meeting the needs of today's undergraduates through outstanding teaching, exceptional hands-on research experiences, the very best in a residential community, and unique opportunities to make a contribution to communities at home and abroad.

Crandall University

Crandall University has undergone a $24 million facilities expansion that included the addition of state-of-the-art classrooms, student gathering areas, athletic facilities and a student apartment complex. If you are looking for a forward-looking campus that is planning for a bright tomorrow, a university that will support your faith and provide a strong foundation for your future, look no further than Crandall University. You'll find a warm and welcoming university home with us.

Saint Mary's University

Saint Mary's traces its earliest beginnings to 1802 when the Reverend Edmund Burke, later Bishop Burke, taught young men at the Glebe House, on the corner of Spring Garden Road and Barrington Street. The boys' school grew first into a college and then into a university, never wavering in its commitment to education and community service.
